Academic Promotions Process

1.

→ 2

applying to AP/P.

 $\overline{\mathbb{R}}$ \longrightarrow

200

Discussion with Line Manager

It is advised in the first instance.

that you discuss your proposed application for promotion with your form part of your PDR conversation.

Applications must be made on the application form and accompained by a full academic CV.

Submit Application

Departmental Assessment

Following submission, your application will be assessed by your department.

Faculty Panel Assessment

Faculty panels will meet to assess all applications for promotion, they will be guided by the departmental assessment Promotion

For those applying for promotion up to grade G, if successful at the faculty panel the promotion will be confirmed.

Only applicable for those 5.

→ 6.

Promotion

For those applying for either AP or P promotions, if successful at the university promotions panel the promotion will be confirmed

External Assessment

If supported by the faculty, external assessments will be requested.

University
Promotions Panel

The University promotions panel will assess all applicants evidence including application form, departmental assessment, faculty assessment and external assessment.

University of Exeter